

Timberlake Country Club, Inc.
Membership Rights and Regulations

Applicants for membership must be of good character, and general social and financial reputation to be favorably considered. All who join Timberlake Country Club (TCC) must contribute equity and pay monthly dues. Equity members will be investors in TCC with the potential of increasing the value of their investment.

The use of TCC facilities is dependent upon compliance with membership rules and regulations established by the Board of Directors. Applicants agree to accept membership subject to privileges, limitations and restrictions in effect on the date of admission to membership and any amendments adopted thereafter. In accepting the membership, the applicants likewise undertakes to conform behavior and attitude to the standards and conditions already in place, and enforced at TCC as a matter of policy.

The criteria for potential, and continuing, membership in TCC are as follows:

- Sociability, civility and decorum. Each potential, existing member and guest shall exhibit and maintain these qualities and characteristics in order that they may be a part of the cohesive and homogenous social life of TCC, bringing to any functions or gatherings the combined assets of courteous civility which are the hallmark of a lady or gentleman.
- Comportment Requirements. Each applicant, member and guest shall display and comport themselves in a manner which reflects integrity and decency in their personal behavior.
- Dress Code. Members, guest and non-members visitors shall dress appropriately at all times while on TCC grounds. Denim jeans and shorts, shorts of less length than Bermuda shorts, cut-offs and tee shirts are prohibited anywhere in the clubhouse and on the golf course.

Membership is a matter of privilege and not of right. Members are asked to review, accept and abide by TCC's Bylaws, published rules and regulations, as they pertain to members, family and guests. Members shall comply with all rules and regulations established by the Board regarding financial obligations to the Club. Additional admission procedures and policies consistent with the procedures set forth herein may be adopted by the Board. An application to become a member of Timberlake Country Club shall be accepted on an affirmative vote by the members of the Board of Directors.
